

PRESS RELEASE

EVENT: A One-Artist-Show by local artist Chuck Horsman at the Southside Art League Off Broadway Gallery in April 2017. Our Guest Artist will be exhibiting original impressionistic oil paintings, many of which will be for sale.

ARTIST: Southsider Chuck Horsman graduated from Roncalli High School, and the University of Indianapolis in 1988 with a BS in Fine Arts. He now works as a graphic designer for his own company, Chuck Horsman Design, which he began in 2002. While creating logos, letterheads, brochures, and digital designs from his Greenwood studio to pay the bills, his passion for painting reignited about 3 years ago. His goal now is to paint every day to improve his craft. He recently won the “2016 Art Uncorked” Mallow Run Winery Label competition.

His loose style for painting portraits starts by with a sketch and color blocks. Next he brushes in more color and detail. Then he uses his palette knife to loosen up and abstract the image. The final step is to add some words or symbols that depict something important about the subject’s life. The result is a natural and lively interpretation rather than a photographic reproduction.

His landscapes and portrait paintings are displayed at the Stutz Building in Indianapolis, ProArt Gallery in Greenwood, and his website chuckhorsmanart.com
