

Marge Christie Dietel
Artist in Watercolors and Oils

Marge loves to paint and at this stage of her career, she enjoys both watercolor and oils. She embraces painting with an enthusiasm that heightens her awareness and observation of nature and color round about her. This gives her a delight that she counts very precious to her life today.

Marge lives south of Indianapolis with her husband, Don. They have raised three children and now enjoy ten grandchildren all of whom have been subjects in her paintings.

Her training came from the late David Tipton and more recently, from Ron Mack at the Southside Art League in Greenwood. She has also studied under Tony Couch, Karen Vernon, the late Zoltan Szabo, and many others.

She has received awards for her paintings in the various SALI Exhibitions, the Johnson County Fair, and the Indiana State Fair. Her work hangs in the "Off Broadway" Gallery at the Southside Art League, in her studio, and in private collections locally and in several states.
