

One-Artist-Show by Sandy Hall
At The Southside Art League
October, 2025

EVENT: A One-Artist-Show by Indiana artist Sandy Hall at the Southside Art League Off Broadway Gallery in October, 2025. Our Guest Artist will be exhibiting a special collection of paintings in various media.

ARTIST: Sandy Hall's journey as an artist spans decades, interwoven with her role as a dedicated teacher and her passion for visual expression. Her early years were marked by a keen curiosity about the world of art, which led her to pursue a career in art education. Through her tenure at Greenfield Central Junior High School, she not only imparted technical skills but also inspired countless students to explore their own artistic voices. Her classroom was a haven for creative minds, fostering an environment where imagination could flourish.

She loves the discipline of creating marks, the process of dabbing paint and adventures in traveling. Even after retiring, Sandy continues to teach and to help others discover their creative potential, encouraging them to explore techniques and media to build confidence and solve problems. Plein air painting, composing from her own photographs, and life studies are all areas she likes to pursue.

Sandy teaches at Studio 12A, 2 W. Main St. Greenfield, IN, and Hancock County Arts Gallery, 20 N. State. Her "Nine Little Goblins" display is featured each fall on Riley's Greenfield boyhood home, with a panel along the Riley Arts Trail honoring her in 2025. She received the 2024 People's Choice Award at St. Petersburg Florida Morean Center February Ionic Plein Aire Event.

Sandy is affiliated with various art organizations, including Indiana Plein Air Painters Association, Hancock County Arts, Upland Plein Air Painters, Watercolor Society of Indiana, Riley Old Home Society, Friends of T.C. Steele, Richmond Art Museum, Pendleton Artists Society, and Art Education Association of Indiana. She lives in Greenfield with her husband Roger.
