

One-Artist-Show by Greg Potter
At The Southside Art League
November, 2025

EVENT: A One-Artist-Show by local artist Greg Potter at the Southside Art League Off Broadway Gallery in November 2025. Our Guest Artist will be exhibiting original surrealist and whimsical oil paintings, many of which will be for sale.

ARTIST: Greg Potter is a narrative painter whose work blends whimsy, introspection, and social commentary through anthropomorphic animal characters. His art invites viewers into imaginative worlds where raccoons rescue forest creatures, rabbits stroll through parks, and beagles pilot WWII bombers—each scene a metaphor for freedom, identity, and resilience.

A former U.S. Army soldier with four Middle East deployments, Potter turned to painting as a therapeutic practice. Potter's art is rooted in storytelling. His process begins with playful sketches and careful palette studies, evolving into compositions rich in emotion and detail. His animal protagonists -irreverent, joyful, and often misfit-mirror the complexities of post-military life, societal roles, and personal healing.

His work has received recognition from the Indianapolis Arts Council, including commissions and a featured exhibit at the Indianapolis Airport. He has received multiple IDDC mural grants, contributing public art to Franklin and Shelbyville, and is a 2024 recipient of the Creative Renewal Fellowship. These honors underscore his commitment to using art as a tool for healing, dialogue, and community engagement.
