

Karen Margulis Pastel Workshop
Cooking With Color-Breaking Free From Boring Color
At The Southside Art League
October 23 and 24, 2026

Biography: Karen Margulis is a contemporary American landscape painter and art educator known for her vibrant pastel and other media work, especially wildflowers. She is inspired by extensive travels and family trips, often to National Parks. She is a Master Circle recipient (IAPS) and Signature Member (PSA), she teaches workshops globally and online, making art accessible and fun, with a focus on her “no-fail” methods for success in painting.

Title of Workshop: Cooking With Color: Breaking Free From Boring Color. Would you like to break free from using boring local color in your paintings without creating color chaos? In this workshop we will explore techniques that will lead to more expressive paintings with an exploration of new and exciting ways to use color effectively in a painting. I will share my tips and techniques to achieve vibrant and successful color in your paintings. There will be demos, handouts and plenty of individual help at the easel during the workshop.

Location and Date of Workshop: Southside Art League, 299 E. Broadway St, Greenwood, IN 46142 (suburb of Indianapolis); October 23-24, 2026. 9am-4pm daily, with a break for lunch. You can bring your lunch or buy locally or we can see if we can order from a local eatery and pay individually but pick up the group order and bring back to the site.

Cost: Members of Southside Art League: $350; Non-Members: $400.

Registration: Registration opens April 1. Send check with contact information to Southside Art League, 299 E. Broadway Street, Greenwood, IN 46142. A minimum of $100 is due at registration (make checks payable to Southside Art League); final payment is due by July 23, 2026.

Cancellation Policy: Written cancellation required. If you cancel before final payment date of July 23, 2026, your registration fee minus a $75 administrative fee will be refunded.
