Our painting excursions to France were trips of a lifetime. We chose to go to the area of Provence France in 2019. We were so surprised to see that all of the poppies were blooming in brilliant red fields in the countryside and also in the cracks and crevices of old buildings in the ancient towns. Every day, we explored little towns and were privileged to paint where famous French painters have worked and lived. Later in 2023 we chose to go to the area of Brittany France. We were amazed with its historical significance. We stayed in an 1800's maison that had the perfect blend of British and French architecture. The weather was very temperate and the nearby ocean views were fabulous. Visiting lighthouses, World Heritage Sites and other historical towns filled our time as we painted and explored this area. In 2025 we went to the Loire Valley famous for its many beautiful châteaux and the Loire River. We were privileged to visit several remarkable châteaux and their beautiful manicured gardens. Domaine de Brou was so close all we had to do was to look out of our bedroom windows to see it with the sunrise.
