Two Artist Show by Janice Lindboe and Bonnie Bray
At The Southside Art League
November, 2026

EVENT: A 2-artist show by Janice Lindboe and Bonnie Bray will be at the Southside Art League Off Broadway Gallery November 4 through November 28. Janice will be exhibiting her pastels and Bonnie her oils.

ARTISTS: Art was always an interest for Janice, who grew up in Northern Indiana, but a job with American Airlines provided an opportunity for travel and a living. After marrying in 1965, she settled in central Indiana. Raising 3 children, retiring and becoming a "senior citizen," she returned to painting, after about a 50-year hiatus.
She is a member of the Southside Art League, The Indiana Plein Air Painters Association, The Hoosier Salon, and on the Board of the Morgan County Community Concerts Association. She has been juried into a number of shows and participated in workshops with Mary Ann Davis and Carol Strock Wasson and a mentoring program with Master Pastelist, Albert Handell.
Bonnie returned to her Indiana home after a marketing career based in New York City. She now lives in central Indiana. Her art interest began with a degree in Visual Design from Purdue University and then eventually after retiring from the work force commenced learning oil painting. She is a member of the Southside Art League and Upland Plein Aire. She, too, has been juried into shows and has participated in workshops and classes with David Kassen, Scott Christensen, Ron Mack and several others.
